	1	The T. P. Hoar Prize for 1988
	5	The U. R. Evans Award for 1989
Gabriele Rocchini	9	The generalization of the three-point method and its application to the corrosion-rate measurement
D. Gorse, B. Rondot and M. da Cunha Belo	23	Irradiation effects on passive films formed on a 304 type stainless steel
Reeta Agrawal and T. K. G. Namboodhiri	37	The inhibition of sulphuric acid corrosion of 410 stainless steel by thioureas
Jia Chen and Jiann Kuo Wu	53	The improved passivation of iron induced by additions of tungsten
P. Peled and D. Itzhak	59	The corrosion behavior of double pressed, double sintered stainless steel containing noble alloying elements
D. J. Holtzhausen and J. P. Roux	67	The influence of Pd on the surface segregation of Cr and impurities in high chromium stainless steel
B. Lloyd and M. I. Manning	77	The episodic nature of the atmospheric rusting of steel
Osami Seri and Kohsuke Tagashira	87	The interpretation of polarization curves for Al–Fe alloys in de-aerated NaCl solution
U. Lotz and J. Postlethwaite	95	Erosion-corrosion in disturbed two phase liquid/particle flow
José M. Saniger and Leonel Cota	107	An auger electron spectroscopy study of the fluorination of Al-7075 alloy
	113	Corrosion Diary

J. C. Scully	115	Editorial
H. H. Le and E. Ghali	117	The electrochemical behaviour of pressure vessel steel in hot Bayer solutions as related to the SCC phenomenon
T. M. Devine	135	The mechanism of sensitization of austenitic stainless steel
A. Karlsson, P. J. Møller and V. Johansen	153	Iron and steel corrosion in a system of O_2, SO_2 and alkali chloride. The formation of low melting point salt mixtures
M. E. Roselli, M. A. Sánchez, E. M. Macchi and J. J. Podestá	159	A study of organic films formed in the Fe/H_2SO_4 + propargyl alcohol system by UV and IR spectroscopy and electron and X-ray diffraction
J. M. Bastidas, J. J. Damborenea, J. A. Gonzalez, E. Otero, M. E. Chacon, W. I. Archer, J. D. Scantlebury and K. Alston	171	An electrochemical study on the influence of oxygen in tinplate corrosion and inhibition
M. Moliere, Y. Verdier and C. Leymonie	183	Oxidation of copper in high purity water at 70°C: application to electric generator operation
A. Guenbour, N. Bui, J. Faucheu, Y. Segui, A. B. Bachir and F. Dabosi	189	The electrical properties of passive films formed on stainless steels in phosphoric acids
A. N. Nigam, R. P. Tripathi, M. L. Jangid, K. Dhoot and M. P. Chacharkar	201	The influence of ascorbic acid on the corrosion of mild steel
E. McCafferty, P. M. Natishan and G. K. Hubler	209	The anodic behavior of ion beam mixed surface alloys
D. R. Johns and F. R. Beckitt	223	Factors influencing the thermal stabilisation of alloy 600 tubing against intergranular corrosion

F. Berthier, J.-P. Diard, A. Jussiaume and J.-J. Rameau — 239 — The instantaneous impedance of non-stationary electrochemical systems: application to a corroding zinc electrode

G. S. Duffó and J. R. Galvele — 249 — Experimental confirmation of the surface mobility–stress corrosion cracking mechanism: Ag–15Pd, Ag–15Au and Ag–30Cd alloys in halide and sulphate containing solutions

M. J. Pryor and L. Lin — 267 — The mechanism of stress corrosion cracking of Cu-base alloys

A. Turnbull and G. F. Miller — 293 — A theoretical evaluation of the effect of a partial surface coating on hydrogen atom distribution in cathodic charging of steel

M. Miyasaka, K. Hashimoto, K. Kishimoto and S. Aoki — 299 — A boundary element analysis on galvanic corrosion problems—computational accuracy on galvanic fields with screen plates

S. K. Sharma, P. Mukhopadhyay, P. K. Chauhan and S. K. Kulkarni — 313 — Studies on the corrosion of two multicomponent iron base metallic glasses in potassium sulphate solution

325 — Corrosion Diary

NUMBER 4/5

V. Buscaglia, P. Nanni and C. Bottino — 327 — The mechanism of sodium sulphate-induced low temperature hot corrosion of pure iron

I. Sekine, C. Okano and M. Yuasa — 351 — The corrosion behaviour of ferritic stainless steel in oxalic acid solutions

D. B. Hibbert, S. Richards and V. Gonzalves — 367 — The kinetics and mechanism of the corrosion of copper in acidified copper (II) bromide solution

M. Ürgen, U. Stolz and R. Kirchheim — 377 — ESCA measurements of films on molybdenum formed in the passive and transpassive region

A. Macias and C. Andrade — 393 — The behaviour of galvanized steel in chloride-containing alkaline solutions—I. The influence of the cation

J. E. Castle and R. Ke — 409 — Studies by Auger spectroscopy of pit initiation at the site of inclusions in stainless steel

J. E. Castle and J. H. Qiu — 429 — Ion selectivity in the passivation of a Ni bearing steel

M. Azzi and J. J. Rameau — 439 — Corrosion in molten Na_2CO_3-K_2CO_3 at 800°C—II. The influence of water vapor on iron corrosion

P. Papaiacovou, R. J. Hussey, D. F. Mitchell and M. J. Graham — 451 — The effect of CeO_2 coatings on the oxidation behaviour of Fe–20Cr alloys in O_2 at 1173 K

E. M. M. Sutter and G. J. Goetz-Grandmont — 461 — The behaviour of titanium in nitric–hydrofluoric acid solutions

Jin-Syung Chen, V. Radmilovic and T. M. Devine — 477 — A comparison of the chromium concentration on grain boundaries in sensitized stainless steel measured by analytical electron microscopy and an electrochemical technique

R. G. Kelly and P. J. Moran — 495 — The passivity of metals in organic solutions

L. Tomlinson, C. B. Ashmore, P. J. B. Silver and A. P. Mead — 511 — The high temperature aqueous corrosion of ferritic steels: effect of heat flux on corrosion and magnetite deposition

537 — Announcements
